

PALMERSTON NORTH'S MOBILITY PARKING PERMIT SCHEME

A MOBILITY PARKING PERMIT GIVES THE HOLDER THE AUTHORITY TO USE:

- Accessible car parks [outlined in yellow and displaying the wheelchair symbol], which are within a 200 metres distance of your destination.
- Standard car parks or mobility parks for 60 minutes longer than stated times after initial payment at the meter.

To see if you are eligible for a mobility parking permit contact CCS Disability Action Office or Sommerville.

THE PALMERSTON NORTH CITY COUNCIL LOCAL CONCESSION

Motorists displaying a valid Mobility Parking Permit while parking are entitled to an additional 60 minutes of time per space. The 60 minute time concession starts following your initial payment in a metered space and apply's to non-metered spaces as well. This does not include short-term parks such as P5, P10, P15, P30 Loading Zones - the Permit holder must comply with all other road rules which are freely available at: <http://www.nzta.govt.nz/resources/roadcode/>

OBLIGATIONS

The Permit must be clearly displayed on the inside of the vehicle windscreen or on the dashboard while you are parked. If you do not have your Permit with you, or it is not clearly visible in the windscreen, then you cannot use a mobility parking space, or make use of the Palmerston North City Council Local Concession. Those who fail to comply with these obligations are liable for a fine of $150.

Remember to update your permit before it expires as those who display out of date Permits will be fined $150.
