The Committee notes that no objection has been received from the Licensing Inspector, the Police or the Medical Officer of Health relating to the application.

The Committee found during its deliberations however that a number of questions arose in respect to the designation that should be imposed upon the premises pursuant to section 119(2) of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012. The Committee as a condition designates the entire area of the premises as "supervised" pursuant to section 119(2) of the Act.

The Licence is renewed subject to the hours of trade being 9.00am to 11.00pm Monday to Sunday and the other conditions listed on licence number 39/OFF/013/2015.
